

WHAT'S COUNTRY NOW

Country Living

March 2012

SPECIAL ISSUE!

the best of country style

- 100 fresh design finds
- The next big collectibles
- PLUS: How to update your kitchen for less

DIY ideas that wow!

Casserole recipes from top chefs

COUNTRYLIVING.COM $4.50

This notebook—made of recycled paper—is ideal for recording travel adventures. (From $20; therecycledlibrary.etsy.com)

up to an art project waiting to happen. ($45; 24"W x 18"H; dirtsastudio.etsy.com)

CRIBBAGE BOARD Any photo or message can be lasered onto this maple winner, which comes with pegs and a deck of cards. ($170; 5"L x 8½"W; splinterswoodworks.com)

PILLOW Stake a claim to your favorite spot with this cushion, available in four colors. There's also the option of adding a family name or motto. ($74.95; 18" square; redenvelope.com; enter COUNTRY LIVING for discount)

COASTERS Designer Nathan Harkrader emblazons squares of Italian marble with colorful images from century-old American maps. ($29.99 for set of four; nycwebstore.com/map-coasters)

COOKIE CUTTER Have your state and eat it too, thanks to this copper utensil. ($12.95; coppergifts.com)